

Ings Way Lunch Day

Lunch Day is on Wednesday 10th July from 11.30 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. Please come and join us for a free lunch of homemade sandwiches, pudding, tea/coffee and biscuits (and a quiz!)

Hymn List

We have given a week's grace for handing in your hymn lists, so please hand them to Hilary or Philippa.

Intercessions

It would be good to have more volunteers to lead intercessions on Sundays. Support/advice is available if needed. Please contact Philippa.

Afternoon Tea and chat about 'Hearing God'

On Saturday 27th July, 3.30-5pm, in the church hall, Philippa and Lucinda will be hosting a space for anyone who would like to come and chat about 'How we Hear God'. In our sermon series in July we are thinking about this topic, so if you'd like to have a bit of a longer conversation, ask any questions, hear people's experiences, do come along. We'll be providing a mini afternoon tea of scones and cakes, tea and coffee!

Sign up at the back so we know rough numbers.

Collect of the Day (Sixth Sunday after Trinity)

Creator God, you made us all in your image: may we discern you in all that we see, and serve you in all that we do; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Luke 24:13-34

¹³ On that same day, two of the disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴ and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵ While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, ¹⁶ but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷ And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?'

They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸ Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?'

¹⁹ Jesus asked them, 'What things?'

They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹ But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. ²² Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, ²³ and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive.

²⁴ Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see Jesus.'

²⁵ Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! ²⁶ Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?'

²⁷ Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

²⁸ As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. ²⁹ But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.'

So he went in to stay with them.

³⁰ When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Jesus; and he vanished from their sight.

³² They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?'

³³ That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together.

³⁴ They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!'

Post-communion (Fifth Sunday after Trinity)

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
