Hymn Survey

We have done an analysis of the results of our hymn survey from the 10 replies received. There are copies at the back of church.

Harvest

Thank you to everyone who donated so generously to the Harvest offerings. We especially thank the Scout Group for the wonderful service! The refreshments and stalls afterwards raised £294.60 for church funds, so "Thank you" to all who came or contributed.

Advance notice

There will be another Dabble Day on Saturday 30th November from 10.30 a.m. to 2.00 p.m. More details later, but mark the date in your diary.

Invitation to support Winter Shelter at St John's Clayton

Each winter a network of local churches participate in the Winter Shelter for the homeless, run by Inn Churches, offering food and shelter to up to 12 homeless guests each evening, who would otherwise be sleeping rough on the streets of Bradford. St John's Clayton is hosting the winter shelter from Monday 27 January - Monday 3 February 2025. It takes a lot of volunteers to man across the week - last year 56 volunteers got involved across local churches in West Bradford. See the poster at the back if you are interested in volunteering to help, and any enquiries to Stephen Wood, Winter Shelter Coordinator, stevezwood@gmail.com, 07944 680859

Philippa's Last service

Philippa's time with us ends when she goes on maternity leave on 16th December. Her last service with us will be on Sunday 1st December. To mark this, to say "thank you" and wish her all the best, we are having a pie and pea lunch after the service. To help with catering, please sign the sheet at the back of church if you are able to be there.

Collect of the Day (All Saints' Day)

God of holiness, your glory is proclaimed in every age: as we rejoice in the faith of your saints, inspire us to follow their example with boldness and joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Revelation 21.1-6

¹ I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; ⁴ he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.'

⁵ And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.'

⁶ Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.'

John 11.32-44

³² When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.'

³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. ³⁴ He said, 'Where have you laid him?'

They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.'

³⁵ Jesus began to weep.

³⁶ So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!'³⁷ But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

³⁸ Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.'

⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?'

⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. ⁴² I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.'

⁴³ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!'

⁴⁴ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

Post Communion (All Saints' Day)

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things: may we who have shared at this table as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Pease pray for all on our prayer list: Dermot, Eric and Wendy, Doreen, Ivan, Pauline, Tracy, Keretha and Simon, Billy and anyone known to you
