

Welcome

We welcome Isla with her family and friends to our service this morning on the occasion of her baptism.

Christmas Fair

The Christmas Fair will be on 1st December from 12.00 noon till 2.00p.m. We hope to have the usual stalls and any offers of help with one of these will be most welcome. Donations of prizes for the raffle, tombola and bottle stall will be gratefully received. Expect further appeals for things to sell in due course.

Earthquake and Tsunami Appeal

There is a plate at the back of church for any contributions to the disaster appeal.

Advent Calendars

We are again proposing to order some fair trade Advent Calendars featuring the real Christmas story. They will be £3.99 each and orders can be placed on the sheet at the back of church. Order before 28th October, please.

Harvest Festival

The Parade Service on 21st October will be our Harvest Festival. Donations of dried, tinned or non-perishable goods will be welcome. Fresh produce will go to Box Tree Cottage.

Worship Questionnaire

Summaries of the replies to the Worship Questionnaire are available at the back of church for the information of members of the congregation.

Service to Remember those who have Died

We will again be holding a service to celebrate the lives of those who have died, recently or longer ago, on Sunday 4th November at 4.00 p.m.

Sunday 14th October 2018

20th Sunday after Trinity

Service: Holy Communion & Baptism

Children in Church

Children are most welcome to our services. There is a children's corner at the back of church, with books, toys and colouring sheets for those children too young to sit in the pews.

Refreshments.

Please join us for refreshments in the hall after the service

Collect of the Day

God, the giver of life, whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church: by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will, that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Hebrews 4.14 to 16

¹⁴ Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin.

¹⁶ Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.

Alleluia!

Mark 10.23-27

²³ Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!'

²⁴ And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.'

²⁶ They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?'

²⁷ Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.'

Post Communion

God our Father, whose Son, the light unfailing, has come from heaven to deliver the world from the darkness of ignorance: let these holy mysteries open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life, and walk in it without stumbling; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
