Summer Fair

The Summer Fair will be on Saturday 14th July from 12 noon till 2.00 p.m. There will be a Grand Raffle and among the prizes will be a Yorkshire Hamper; items for the hamper would be very much appreciated.

There are some posters at the back of church promoting the Fair. Please take one if you are able to put it in a local shop, surgery or similar. Raffle tickets are now available; Grace will be happy to supply some.

Social Committee

The Social Committee will meet tomorrow evening at 7.30p.m. at 22 Grouse Moor Lane, Queensbury to finalise plans for the Summer Fair.

20th Century Society

The Yorkshire branch of the 20th Century Society are paying us a visit on this Saturday 7th July at 3pm to admire our building. We are expecting at least 30 people so if anyone would like to come to greet them and/or make some tea, please have a word with Patrick. Thank you.

Children in Church

Children are most welcome to our services. There is a children's corner at the back of church, with books, toys and colouring sheets for those children too young to sit in the pews.

Refreshments.

Please join us for refreshments in the hall after the service

Please take this service sheet home with you

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all thy faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve thee in holiness and truth, to the glory of thy name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

2 Corinthians 8.7-15

⁷ You excel in everything - in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you - so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. ⁸ I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others.

⁹ For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something - ¹¹ now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. ¹² For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has - not according to what one does not have. ¹³ I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between ¹⁴ your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. ¹⁵ As it is written, 'The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.'

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed.

Alleluia!

Mark 5.21-34

²¹ When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the lake. ²² Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, ²³ fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.'

²⁴ So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. ²⁵ Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. ²⁶ She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. ²⁷ She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸ for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.'

²⁹ Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

³⁰ Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' ³¹ And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?"'

³² He looked all around to see who had done it.

³³ But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. ³⁴ He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.'

Post Communion Prayer

Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
